

Dear

Ho! Ho! Ho! It's almost Christmas Eve, and the reindeer and I are very excited to visit you again! I have been checking my naughty and nice list, and I'm so happy to see your name on my "nice list" this year! That makes me and Mrs. Claus so happy! I just checked in on the elves up in their workshop and I saw them working on something with your name on it. I better get back up there and help them wrap up all the presents that need to be delivered. My reindeers and I will be visiting you soon. Rudolf may be tired and hungry after his long journey during the night so if you would like to leave some reindeer treats for him and his team they would be very happy. Merry Christmas to all!
