The City of Murrieta Voted a Best Place to Work by Readers of Inland Empire Magazine

Murrieta, CA: The City of Murrieta has been voted one of the Best Places to Work in the Inland Empire, as published in the October 2022 issue of Inland Empire Magazine.

The City strives to serve the community, while maintaining a strong organizational culture. This recognition is particularly meaningful because nominations were submitted by staff. City staff work hard to attract the most highly qualified and talented workforce and City leadership will continue its effort to be one of the best places to work in the region and in the profession.

Working for a city voted best place to work provides employees with the opportunity to be part of a successful and thriving environment with great development and growth potential. We invite you to join our team and take part in the success of Murrieta.

The City of Murrieta values integrity, public service, professionalism, teamwork, and leadership. For more information regarding job opportunities please visit www.MurrietaCA.gov/jobs.

###

Murrieta's more than 115,000 residents live in one of the safest cities in the U.S., with top-ranked schools, 53 parks, and a dynamic business environment. Central to all of Southern California, Murrieta is truly the gem of the valley. With a median age of 36 and an average household income of $136,000, Murrieta boasts a well-educated population and a strong labor force. Ranked the fiscally healthiest full-service city (with more than 100,000 residents) in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego counties, Murrieta's future is undoubtedly bright.
