The City of Murrieta Voted a Best City by Readers of Inland Empire Magazine

Murrieta, CA: The City is proud to share that Murrieta has been voted a Best City in the Inland Empire by readers of the Inland Empire Magazine. The City is honored to receive this recognition and proud to continue to be a great place to work, live, and play.

The City of Murrieta is committed to providing residents and businesses a place to thrive. This designation is a testament to the incredible residents who call Murrieta home and to everyone who helps make Murrieta a top destination in the Inland Empire.

The Murrieta City Council has ambitious goals of providing innovative public safety, aggressively pursuing economic development, maintaining fiscal sustainability, transparency, accountability and organizational efficiency, planning for infrastructure development, delivering responsive community services and fostering an engaged, connected and caring community. And the City team values integrity, public service, professionalism, teamwork, and leadership.

Murrieta is the ideal place to call home, offering everything from beautiful nature trails, to quality schools, and a vibrant community. The City will continue its efforts to be a safe and welcoming place to live, with top-notch services and infrastructure that ensure the well-being of all residents.

The City of Murrieta is committed to making the community the best place to live.

Murrieta's more than 115,000 residents live in one of the safest cities in the U.S., with top-ranked schools, 53 parks, and a dynamic business environment. Central to all of Southern California, Murrieta is truly the gem of the valley. With a median age of 36 and an average household income of $136,000, Murrieta boasts a well-educated population and a strong labor force. Ranked the fiscally healthiest full-service city (with more than 100,000 residents) in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego counties, Murrieta's future is undoubtedly bright.
